2006 Coldwater Football

Cupboard not bare for defending state champs

COLDWATER — Just as is the case in most seasons with the Coldwater football program, the preparation for the 2006 season ended shortly after the 2005 season, a year in which the Cavaliers went undefeated and captured their first state football championship in school history.

"I think the tone has been set the previous years that the expectations are to come in prepared, not to step back and then try to build up yourself, but to come in with a high level of intensity and enthusiasm," said

Coldwater coach John Reed, starting his 12th season as the mentor of the Cavaliers. "I don't know how it is with other programs, but it is, for us, a year-round endeavor. ... It's not like we start football in August."

This year's team sees the Cavaliers having to replace not only the leading passer (Steve Borger) and several of his top receivers (Brady Geier and Justin Kahlig), but also the leading rusher and a defensive stalwart in Ross Homan, the three-time All-Ohioian now getting ready to play at Ohio State.

"You don't replace those guys. Those guys come along once or twice in a career," said Reed. "The guys that are going to play are still talented and they believe they can do the same sort of thing, and that's great."

While new starters had to be groomed this season, the cupboard is not bare as Reed points out, with talented players who did get some playing time last season.

OFFENSE

Borger had a breakout season at quarterback last season for the Cavs, throwing just three interceptions all season in 241 pass attempts and connected on 69 percent of his passes for 29 touchdowns and 2,651 yards.

Sam Slavik (6-3, 181, senior), the backup last season, attempted 15 passes — completing five for 49 yards — last season.

"We've been fortunate the past 11 years to have outstanding quarterbacks and this year's no exception," said Reed. "With Sam and Cory Klenke (6-1, 175, sophomore), we have two outstanding quarterbacks. Sam provides outstanding leadership and calmness."

Ryan Geier (6-1, 177, junior) is the leading receiver returning for Coldwater with 363 yards on 23 receptions and three scores. Matt Hoyng (5-10, 157, senior) is a favorite to line-up as a starting wide-out alongside Geier this season.

"The cupboard is definitely not bare," said Reed. "Matt played a lot for us and returns as a wide receiver. Justin Gray (5-11, 149, senior) is a man who was a jayvee player but is stepping up with the opportunity to play. Of course, Ryan returns as a 15-game starter for us. We're young, but we're talented at these positions."

The rushing game that flourished with Homan at tailback last season has promise heading into the 2006 campaign. Tony Harlamert (6-0, 172, sophomore) saw significant playing time as a freshman, rushing for 384 yards on 76 carries and scored three times. Tyler Kunk (5-10, 186, junior) will also battle for playing time after totting the ball 40 times for 212 yards last season.

Doug Kahlig (6-0, 176) was the fullback in certain power formations last season and returns this season for his senior campaign.

The core of the offensive line returns as center Ryan Hoyng (6-3, 223, senior), tackle Josh Pax (5-11, 224, senior) and guard Tyler Muhlenkamp (6-3, 204, senior) will anchor the front wall.

Mike Rengers (6-6, 268, senior) will handle the other tackle spot with a group of four players battling for the other guard slot — Matt Gruss (6-1, 210, junior), Adam Berger (5-8, 200, senior), Lucas Homan (6-1, 194, senior) and Gavin Bettinger (5-7, 216, senior). Senior Trent Burger (6-0, 263) spent more time with the defense last season, but is looked on as the sixth lineman for the Cavaliers.

DEFENSE

Beyond all the accolades and coverage that he received in a four-year career at Coldwater, Homan was not the be-all and end-all of the Cavaliers, as other key players are missing from the defense as well.

Fellow linebacker Cody Muhlenkamp is at Ball State to work as a long-snapper, while defensive ends Brian Brunswick and Gaston Pleiman have also graduated. Defensive back Brady Geier is also gone, joining Mike Kelly's squad at Dayton.

Although Reed joked about asking for fifth years of eligibility for standouts Homan and Muhlenkamp, the players slotted to fill the spots in the 44 defense scheme have talent of their own.

Adam Hoyng (6-1, 182, senior), who had knee surgery last year after getting hurt in the first game, and Adam Homan (6-2, 230, sophomore and brother to Ross) will fill the middle linebacker spots with Keith Schoenherr (6-2, 186, junior) and Kelvin Bruns (5-7, 174, junior) playing the outside spots.

Geier, who had a solid season at linebacker last year, will move to take over at safety this season, utilizing his speed.

Justin Bruns (5-9, 169, junior) will likely play at one corner when he returns from a broken collarbone while Harlamert, Klenke and Matt Hoyng will also vie for corner time. Zach Kaup (6-0, 182, sophomore) will also see some action at safety in a reserve role. Dusty Rutschilling (5-8, 166, sophomore) will work as a rover between linebacker and secondary, much like Geier did last season.

Kunk, who moved up to play defensive end last season when Pleiman moved to play linebacker, will anchor the defensive front wall.

"I think the strength of the defense is our defensive line," said Reed. "I'm so impressed with Josh Pax, Adam Berger, Ty Kunk and Trent Dues. Then at defensive end Lucas Homan, Dean Howell (6-1, 180, senior) and Tyler Muhlenkamp. I don't know if Randy (defensive line coach

SPECIAL TEAMS

Mario de la Rosa will handle the field goals and extra points this season while Keith Schoenherr will do the kickoffs for the Cavaliers.

Geier will be a dangerous return man on punts and kickoffs while also handling the punting chores.

OUTLOOK

After winning the state title last season and going 15-0 in the process, Reed preaches one train of thought going into this season.

"Don't take anything for granted," said Reed. "That is the message that we as coaches try to sell them on. Don't expect anything to be given to you or anything to be easy. Don't believe that just because you've won in the past, therefore you'll win now."
