Cavaliers Defeat the Panthers

The Coldwater Cavaliers continued their two decade dominance of the Parkway Panthers as they defeated the gold and black 48-14.

As has been their pattern so far this season the Cavs started off hot scoring 34 points before the halfway point of the second quarter. Adam Rammel has the best night if his career as he snagged 5 passes for 139 yards and four touchdowns on receptions of 14, 57, 49 & 9 yards.

Colin Paynter grabbed another for a 47 yard score. Andrew Feltz had the defensive play of the night as he returned an interception 57 yards for a touchdown.

Quarterback Keith Wenning had another big night too as he threw for 313 yards on 18 of 23 passes and five touchdowns.

The second half saw a lot of second and third string players get playing time as both teams score 14 points including Drew Klosterman scoring the Cavs final touchdown on an 8 yard tote with 4 minutes remaining.

The Panthers collected 219 yards of total offense but only had 84 total yards in the first half against the first team D.

As we said last week, on paper the Panthers may not have matched up well with Coldwater but in the MAC everyone comes to play and play hard. The Panthers are young and the future looks bright for them.

Time for "The Backyard Battle"

Coldwater and St. Henry. It is about 5 miles from the gates of Cavalier Stadium to the gates of the Wally Post Athletic complex in St. Henry.

Many of the players know each other as friends and some are members of the same family. Their two communities have a lot in common including successful athletic traditions.

But all that will be laid aside for about 3 hours on Friday night as the Redskins bring their 5-1 record to Coldwater who stand at 6-0 for the 37th renewal of what has become known as "The Backyard Battle".

St. Henry was tripped up last week by Anna 14-0 and they need a win to put themselves back into the MAC title race.

Not only will the Redskins need to rise up from their first loss of the season but they will be looking to defeat the Cavaliers for the first time since 1997, a streak of 12 wins for Coldwater.

In their last five meetings the Redskins have only scored 3 touchdowns. The Cavaliers lead the series 25-10-1 including last seasons 34-7 win.

This season the Skins bring a lot of talent and experience so this game should be fun to watch. And be sure to bring a buck or two as the 50-50 should be lucrative as well!
