The Week in the MAC

With two weeks of conference play in the books the MAC standings are beginning to develop into bunches. At the bottom are Parkway, Ft. Recovery and St. Johns all of whom are winless in the MAC.

In the middle at 1-1 are Minster, New Bremen, Versailles and St. Henry. They are still in the hunt for a title, but they cannot afford to lose another game.

At the top are Anna, Coldwater and Marion Local. These teams have yet to meet. It will be a hard task to survive this three team round robin and remain unbeaten. But it is a very real possibility given the perceived balance between these teams.

Anna has the advantage as they host the Flyers this week and Coldwater will visit Anna in week 8. If Marion and Coldwater can beat Anna at their place it will take Anna out of the hunt and setup the game of the year in week 10 as Coldwater will travel a dozen miles to Maria Stein for all the MAC marbles.

Anna was the MAC coaches preseason pick to win the league. So all the pressure is on them to win at home. If they do, they can win their first title.

Zack McKibben has been the big play maker for Coldwater this season with 440 all purpose yards, 18 points scored and 12 tackles. This includes 2 kickoff returns for touchdowns. Photo courtesy of our good friend Sonny Fulks at PressProsMagazine.com

Next Week: Ft. Recovery

Coldwater passed its first big MAC test in the victory over undefeated Minster. Next up is Ft. Recovery who comes to Cavaliers Stadium with a 1-3 records and 0-2 in the conference. Coldwater has dominated the series winning all 18 meetings. But don't underestimate the Indians. The program is much improved in recent years and they are not the pushovers they once were.

Series Record:	18-0
Last 10 Seasons:	10-0
Otten's Record:	5-0
Last Year:	35-31
Current Streak:	18 W
Largest Victory:	56-0 '05
