Coldwater loaded with talent at skill positions

By GARY R. RASBERRY

COLDWATER — Coming off the 2005 state championship run, the Coldwater Cavaliers went 10-0 during the regular season and won a third straight Midwest Athletic Conference title.

The Cavaliers rolled through the competition before falling in the regional semifinals to Oak Harbor, ending a 26-game winning streak.

Coldwater still has a 32-game regular season winning streak going for them as the 2007 campaign gets underway. The last time the Cavaliers lost in the regular season was in 2003 against Versailles.

John Reed, enshrined in the Ohio High School Football Coaches Hall of Fame this past spring, will need to fill a few spots vacated by graduation, but he has a talented group of seniors and underclassmen to fill the bill.

"Overall, our work ethic has been tremendous: Over our conditioning period and the early part of two-a-days, the attention to detail, the work ethic and not taking things for granted, good leadership and good example setting by our older players," said Reed. "You and I both know that once you have the opportunity to have success, then that success has a tendency to breed success. Older players know what it takes to play at that level, then they try to pass it on to those other guys. That's the thing that impresses me most so far."

OFFENSE

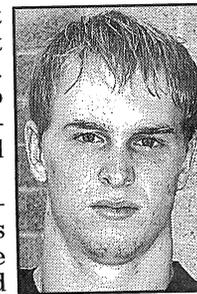

Junior Cory Klenke (6-1, 181) and sophomore Keith Wenning (6-3, 199) have been taking equal snaps in practice to take over at quarterback for the graduated Sam Slavik.

"They both bring something a little bit different to the table," said Reed. "I know we can be successful with both of those quarterbacks.

"We won't be the same team. Cory brings a different skill level at that position. Keith brings a different skill level at that position. So we'll try to identify ourselves based on that."

The receiving corps is one of the deepest Reed has seen. Ryan Geier (6-2, 186, senior), who missed half a season with a shoulder injury, but still had 269 receiving yards last year, Zach Kaup (6-1, 189, junior), Zach Siefing (5-10, 158, junior) and Dusty Rutschilling (5-9, 170, junior) will be just a few of the players lining up in the high-octane offense.

If Klenke lines up as a receiver after gaining 451 yards and five touchdowns last season, that makes the corps even more potent.

Mark Steinbrunner (5-11, 185, senior) and Brock Pleiman (6-2, 204, junior) are contending for the tight end spot.

As a sophomore, Tony Harlamert (6-0, 175, junior) proved to be one of the best all-around players in the Grand Lake area. Harlamert was second in the area with 606 receiving yards and four touchdowns, led the Cavs with 667 rushing yards in addition making an impact on defensive and special team.

Justin Bruns (5-10, 189, senior) and Trent Muhlenkamp (5-6, 145, junior) will also look for playing time in the Cavaliers' multi-purpose tailback rotation. Adam Homan (6-2, 232, junior) and Tyler Kunk (5-10, 186, senior) will handle fullback chores.

The front wall will be the biggest change with most of the group graduated from last season. Guards and centers coach Chip Otten noted that the only absolute is Kyle Ahrens (6-0, 186, senior) at center with Greg Kleinhenz (6-2, 215, senior) backing up or playing guard.

Harlamert

Kurt Schlarman (6-0, 178, senior), Craig Hibner (6-1, 198, senior), Jeremy Jansen (5-8, 188, senior), Trevor Robbins (6-2, 232, junior) and Alex Dues (5-10, 186, junior) are all batting for the guard spots.

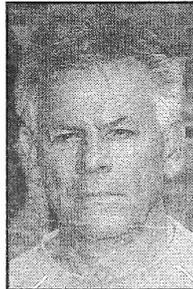

Tackles coach Randy Wright has four players battling for the tackle spots and they include Matt Gruss (6-1, 224, senior), Aaron Gilliland (6-4, 217, junior), Ray Brunswick (6-2, 228, junior) and Craig Homan (6-0, 222, junior).

DEFENSE

Kunk will lead a solid group of players back on the defensive line. Schlarman will move from end to tackle this season with Brunswick and Gruss being among those looking to find a spot. Pleiman, Steinbrunner, Gilliland, Keith Schoenherr (6-2, 199, senior) and Nick Gabel (6-0, 184, senior) will contest for an end spot.

Adam Homan had 114 tackles at one middle linebacker spot in the lineup while outside backer Keith Schoenherr is a veteran that had three sacks last season.

Justin Bruns, who was an outside linebacker last year, moves inside with Kelvin Bruns (5-6, 179, senior) also looking for a spot. Rutschilling, whom Reed described as one of the most versatile players on the roster, will join Nate Bruggeman (5-11, 182, senior) at the outside spots.

The secondary shapes up to be the most solid unit in the area. Klenke (safety) and Harlamert (halfback) each had four interceptions last season with Geier (safety) having three in before the injury. Sieftring and Kaup will be among the leaders vying for a cornerback spot giving the Cavaliers plenty of depth.

"It's one of the strengths of our team," said Reed of the secondary. "I think we really feel good about our coverage skills. It remains to be seen how good of tacklers we're going to be, but our defensive perimeter will be the strength of our team."

recording 39 extra points and two field goals for 45 total points.

Two areas that were a concern last season were kickoffs and punting. Schoenherr did kickoffs, but had to give way to de la Rosa.

Geier started last season at punter, but Klenke then took over and earned All-District first team honors on special teams.

With the speedsters the Cavaliers have to work with, Reed should have no problem finding someone to return punts and kicks.

OUTLOOK

While Reed sees his skill positions being the key to the team this season, he knows that it will take a solid line — both sides of the ball — to get the results that are expected year in and year out for the Cavaliers program.

"The question mark of the team will be the development of our offensive and defensive lines," said Reed. "You can ask our kids that right now and they would say the same thing."

Welcome to Cavalier Stadium and tonight's match up between the Marion Local Flyers and the Coldwater Cavaliers. Both teams opened the '07 campaign with victories last week. The Flyers pasted Elida 51-0 in a game that was called after two quarters due to adverse weather conditions. The Cavs defeated WBL rival Kenton for the sixth straight year 21-7.

Despite the hot-sticky weather which turned cooler and very wet in the third quarter the Cavs put 325 yards of total offense on the board including 186 yards rushing and 139 yard passing.

Cory Klenke had 94 yards rushing to go with 139 passing yards and two TDs. Those TD passes were to Zach Kaup for 13 yards and Ryan Geier for 14 yards

Tony Harlamert ran for 91 yards and scored the other touchdown on a 2 yard burst.

Tonight we begin play in the Midwest Athletic Conference against the defending D6 State Champion Flyers. Coldwater leads the all time series 28-22-4. Marion has dropped 10 of the last 12 games against the Cavs including the last 6 meetings. Last season the Cavs won 27-6.

Last week a strong Marion Local team handed the Cavaliers a stunning 35-14 defeat. The loss snapped a number of winning steaks for Coldwater including 30 MAC wins, 33 regular season wins and 35 home wins. The Flyers also snapped their own 6 game skid to the Cavs whose record fell to 1-1.

This week the opportunity to begin anew is presented to Coldwater as they visit the Cardinals of New Bremen High School. New Bremen enters the game with a 0-2 record, but has only lost those games by a total of 4 points. Last week they lost a heartbreaker to Anna 27-26. Had they converted two missed extra points, they might have won that game.

Coldwater has won the last eight meetings with New Bremen by an average score of 36-7. The Cavaliers will have to put last week's disappointment behind them as the Cardinals will enter the game with some confidence.

Coldwater return to the winning side of the ledger last week as they defeated New Bremen 49-7. The Cavs score the first 28 points of the game. New Bremen got their only score with 3:28 to play in the first half. The mismatch provided Coldwater with the chance to play many underclassmen as they utilized 9 rushers, 5 receivers and 3 quarterbacks. Cory Klenke threw four touchdown passes and Tony Harlamert and Trent Muhlenkamp each rushed for one score.

This week Coldwater makes it first-ever visit to Anna's Booster Field to square off with the co-leaders of the MAC. The Rockets are off to a strong start this year and are looking to avenge their 35-19 defeat last season at Coldwater. Last week Anna traveled to Versailles Hole Field and pasted the Tigers 35-13 on the strength of 461 of total offense including 287 on the ground.

After two weeks of league play the standings look a little different than in recent memory. Anna, Marion Local and Parkway sit on top while St. Henry, Coldwater, Versailles and Ft. Recovery find themselves in the middle of the pack. Perennial powerhouse Delphos St. Johns finds itself in the very unusual position of sharing the cellar with Minster and New Bremen. Ft. Recovery and Parkway are the two surprises so far this year. Neither of these teams can be taken lightly this season.

The Coldwater defense was the difference in last week's 37-8 victory over the Anna Rockets. Mark Steinbrunner opened the game with a 25 yard interception return and near the end of the first quarter he picked up a fumble and ran 32 yards for another score. The Cavalier defense surrendered only 129 yards to Anna including 55 yards on 36 rushes.

This week we tee-it-up for the "Backyard Battle" as St. Henry Redskins will make the 4 mile trip up State Route 118 to meet the Cavaliers. The Skins are the defending D5 state champs. They lost a lot of experienced talent to graduation, but they are 3-1 thus far and cannot be taken lightly. The Cavaliers have improved since their loss to Marion Local in week 2 and also stand at 3-1.

The history of this match up is one of streaks. Coldwater leads the series 23-10-1 which dates back to their first meeting in 1973. Coldwater opened this series with five wins before St. Henry was able to secure a tie followed by their first victory over the Cavs in 1979. The Cavaliers won the next eight meetings after which St. Henry won the next nine. Currently, Coldwater has won the last 10 meetings. Execution and turnovers are always keys to victory, but state of mind may play a role this year as well.

With this week's edition of Coldwater Football weekly you will find season statistics.

For the eleventh straight year the Coldwater Cavaliers defeated the St. Henry Redskins. Despite racking up over 200 yards of total offense the Skins could not crack the goal line and dropped a 42-0 decision. The Cavs were led by Tony Harlamert who had 6 carries for 93 yards and four touchdowns. Cory Klenke totaled 105 yards on 6 of 10 passing with one touchdown and added another on the ground. Ryan Geier had 4 catches for 83 yards and Harlamert also had 4 catches for 68 yards.

Next for the Cavaliers are the upstart Parkway Panthers. Parkway is the surprise team in the MAC this season at 4-1, their best start since 1999. Led by senior QB/LB Jordan Thompson and a group of hungry seniors, the Panthers are looking to do something that has not been done in their lifetimes - defeat Coldwater. Parkway's last victory over the Cavs was in 1988. That's 18 straight losses and only 3 wins versus Coldwater since MAC play began in 1973 (33-3-0). All time the Cavaliers hold 56-13-2 over teams from Rockford.

Division 4 – Region 16 Computer Standings

Coldwater finishes the first half of the regular season with a 4-1 record and has moved into playoff contention by capturing the eighth and final position in Region 16. There is still a lot of football to be played and if the Cavs hope to secure a home game in Week 11, they are going to have to win-out and get some help by having the teams above them lose some games. Should be fun to watch!

The Parkway Panthers are an improved team, but they still have not figured out how to defeat the Coldwater Cavaliers. Despite Jordan Thompson accounting for 247 yards (208 passing, 39 rushing), the Cavalier team was too much for Parkway to handle as Coldwater won 35-14. Tony Harlamert rushed for a pair of TDs, Zach Kaup caught two TD passes and Mark Steinbrunner took his only reception 57 yards to the house. Ryan Geier rounded out the scoring with an 84 yard punt return.

Around the MAC the surprises continue in this 2007 season as Ft Recovery beat Delphos St. John for the first time ever, 29-28 in overtime. St. Henry missed an extra point in over time and fell to the Anna Rockets 28-27. The Kenton Wildcats continue to win and provide Coldwater with much needed level 2 computer points.

The Cavaliers return home next week to meeting the Minster Wildcats. The Cats will be looking for their first victory of the season and have not defeated the Cavs since 1993. Coldwater leads the all time series 40-12.

On the strength of 27 first quarter points, Coldwater rolled to a 60-0 shutout of winless Minster at Cavalier Stadium last Friday night. It was a team effort as six rushers totaled more than 25 yards on the ground. Ryan Geier led all receivers with 145 yards on 6 catches including a 48 yarder. Cory Klenke was 10 of 11 passing with 150 yards and one TD. Keith Wenning was 4 of 5 for 66 yards including a beautiful 48 yard spiral to Geier. Chad Westgerdes provided some excitement as he dodged and weaved his way up field in route to a 60 punt returned for a TD. Kudos to Mario del la Rosa. Mario was perfect in PAT kicks this season with 29 straight conversions. A blocked PAT in the first quarter snapped that string. Sixty is the most points Coldwater has scored in a games since a 70-0 win at Parkway in 2005.

Next up for Coldwater is a trip to Hole Field in Versailles to meet the struggling 2-5 Tigers. Coldwater is 5-1 versus the Tigers in MAC play, but the Tigers hold a 28-21-2 all time advantage over the Cavaliers. Coldwater won last seasons match up 23-14.

Coldwater drops from sixth to eight and Brookville breaks into the top ten at number seven. If Coldwater can win their final three games they will finish with 35 level 1 points. Had they not lost to Marion Local they would have acquired 39 level 1 points. The key to finishing in the top eight will be level 2 points and losses by teams above Coldwater. A top four finish doesn't appear possible.

Tony Harlamert scored three first quarter touchdowns as the Cavaliers pounded the Versailles Tigers 49-14 at Hole Field last Friday. Ryan Geier caught touchdowns passes of 21 and 34 yards from second string QB Keith Wenning. Ryan posted 6 catches for 132 on the night. All the offense Coldwater needed was provided in the first half as they led 42-0 at half time. The second half saw extended playing time for second and third string players. Versailles took advantage of that by leaving their starters in and scored two touchdowns on drives lasting 11 and 19 plays, consuming much of the second half clock. Trent Muhlenkamp posted Coldwater's final points on a 1 yard plunge with 13 seconds left to play.

Next up for Coldwater (7-1) are the Ft. Recovery Indians (5-3). The Indians have never defeated the Cavs in 12 tries. Coldwater has outscored the Fort 548-66 for an average margin of 40 points. This could be the last time these two teams meet for a long time. With the MAC re-aligning their schedules next year, these two teams will not meet for at least the next two seasons.

For the thirteenth consecutive season, the Cavaliers made easy work of the Ft. Recovery as they defeated an otherwise improved Indians squad 45-7. Tony Harlamert again led Coldwater with rushing touchdowns of 4, 6 and 81 yards. Ryan Geier and Tyler Kunk each caught TD passes from Cory Klenke and Trent Muhlenkamp scored the final touchdown on an eight yard scamper. Harlamert finished with 124 yards on eight carries and had 46 yards on 3 catches. Geier had 55 yards on 3 receptions. Klenke was 10 of 16 passing for 124 yard and 2 TDs.

Next up for the Cavs is a Saturday night tilt with St. Johns at Stadium Park in Delphos. The Blue Jays are having a rough season as they stand at 2-7 and will miss the playoffs. They would like nothing better than to spoil Coldwater's season and endanger their playoff chances with a season ending victory. Coldwater leads the series 20-13-1 winning the last five meetings. As always in the MAC, nothing is a sure thing, so it should be exciting.

As we move to the final week of the regular season, the playoff picture for Region 16 is beginning to finalize. The top nine teams are shown below. All other teams in the region have been mathematically eliminated. Alter, Milton-Union and Jonathan Alder have clinched playoff spots. Coldwater moves up one position to 5th. Oakwood drops to 9 while Brookville makes a big move from 9 to 6. The Cavs will probably make the final eight, the question is will they be able to move up one more spot to clinch a home game in the opening round. They will need some help though.

In the regular season finale at Stadium Park in Delphos the Coldwater Cavaliers handed the St. John Blue Jays a resounding 51-7 defeat. The victory secured 9-1 Coldwater a second place finish in the MAC and the #5 seed in the Region 16 playoffs. Delphos closes out their year at a disappointing 2-8.

Tony Harlamert again led the Cavs in scoring as he had runs of 2 and 17 yards as well as a 30 pass from Cory Klenke. Klenke also completed a 40 yard pass to Ryan Geier. Adam Homan scored on a run yard plunge and Trent Muhlenkamp scored on a five yard scamper. Trent led all rushers with 92 yards coming of the bench after Coldwater had secured a 38-0 half time lead. Also Mario del la Rosa kicked a 34 yard field goal, his third of the season.

Kudos to the defense as well as the first team not only held the Jays scoreless in the first half but allowed zero net yards as well. For the game the Cav defense allowed only 96 yards and forced five turnovers; 3 fumbles and 2 interceptions.

Next the Cavaliers turn to the post season. This will be the 13th appearance by Coldwater in the playoffs and their 11th consecutive. To date they are 26-11 with one state title in 2005. In week 11 the Cavs are 10-2.

Their first opponent will be the Pioneers of Jonathan Alder High School. The Pioneers hail from Plain City which is just west of Dublin. Alder finished their regular season 8-2 and are riding a 33 game home winning streak. Last season Alder was defeated by Youngstown Mooney in the D4 state finals.

The game will be played at Alder High School as the Pioneers finished 4th in the region thus earning a home game in the first week of the playoffs. This will be Coldwater's first week 11 road game since a 28-21 victory at Wellington in 2003. Coldwater has not lost in week 11 since 1997; 12-7 to Versailles.

The 2007 season will continue for the Coldwater Cavaliers as they posted an impressive 43-14 victory over the Jonathan Alder at Volunteer Field in Plain City. For the first time this season the Cavs posted over 500 yards of total offensive; 206 rushing and 326 passing. The Pioneers had 298 yards total but most of that yardage came when the games was already decided.

Coldwater led 14-0 at halftime on the arm of quarterback Cory Klenke as his receivers found holes all over the Alder secondary. Cory had his best night this season going 23 of 39 for 311 yards and two touchdowns; 25 to Justin Bruns and 65 to Tony Harlamert. Klenke also had 90 yards rushing scoring on runs of 2 and 11 yards.

Harlamert added a rushing touchdown from 2 yards as did Trent Muhlenkamp who scored from 3 yards out. Harlamert lead all receivers with 146 yards on 9 catches. Zach Kaup 86 yards on 7 grabs as well.

The defense was stellar was well, limiting Alder QB Austin Schlosser to 7 of 20 passing for 76 yards. Alder was able to garner 222 yards on the ground, but 152 of those yards came late in the game, most of it on a nifty 66 yard TD jaunt by Schlosser. Alder fumbled the ball four times, losing two.

This was the first home loss for Alder in 33 games, dating back to the 2002 home opener when they were defeated by Marion Local. What hurt the Pioneers most was losing their composure as the were cited for 10 penalties netting 110 yards including 4 personal fouls and 2 unsportsmanlike conducts. It is a shame that a team with so much talent can't maintain their composure when things get tough. But so it goes...

As for Coldwater their next opponent is the team most observers see as the team to beat on this side of the state. The Knights of Kettering Alter will face the Cavaliers at Alexander Stadium in Piqua. Alter brings an unblemished record to their first meeting with Coldwater. Last season the Knights played in the Division 3 state championship, losing to the Big Red of Steubenville 34-33.

It was what many have called a game for the ages. In one of the most exciting games played in Ohio this fall the Coldwater Cavaliers twice battled back from 21 point deficits to outlast the highly talented Kettering Alter Knights 59-52 in triple overtime.

Despite having players going both ways it was the Cavaliers that showed more energy thru the fourth quarter and the overtime sessions. The Knights running game ran though the Cav defense for three quarters, posting 360 rushing yards on 65 carries for the game. But following a touchdown with 17 seconds left in the third, Alter could only manage 3 more points. Meanwhile the Coldwater passing game picked apart the Alter defense and scored 24 points to win the contest.

Cory Klenke had the best game of his career complete 25 of his 50 passes for 431 yards and 7 touchdowns. Zach Kaup was Klenke favorite receiver as he caught 10 passes for 190 yard scoring 3 touchdowns. Ryan Geier added 6 clutch receptions for 97 yards and 2 TDs. Tony Harlamert added 6 catches for 82 yards and 2 scores while Zach Siefing had 3 catches for 62 yards. The ground game only managed 55 yards on 12 carries, but that was by design as the game plan was to go over the large Kettering d-line instead of trying to go through it.

Klenke has had the two best games in his career these past two weeks. He has completed 48 of his 89 passes for 742 yards and 9 touchdowns with four interceptions. Cory's performance in this game placed him among the best in the history of Ohio High School football. His 431 yard passing ranks 43rd all time, but his 7 TD passes ranks him at #8 with Ben Mauk of Kenton and one behind Findlay's Big Ben Roethlisberger.

It was the first triple overtime game that Coldwater has participated in. They now stand 6-1 in overtime games. The total points scored in this game (111) set a school record for most combined points scored in a game. The Cavs ran their week 12 record to 9-3 and now stand 28-11 in post season play. The victory also marked win number 140 for Coach John Reed against only 28 defeats while at Coldwater.

Next up for Coldwater is the Region 16 Championship game which will be played at Welcome Stadium in Dayton. Their opponent will be Clarksville Clinton-Massie. The Falcons stand at 11-1, their only loss coming at Washington Courthouse 35-34. They share a common opponent with Coldwater in Jonathan Alder. The Falcons defeated the Pioneers 14-9 in week 10. CM has appeared in six straight playoffs.

The Coldwater Cavaliers first nine possessions in the Division 4 Region 16 Championship playoff game with Clinton Massie included 40 plays which produced 471 yards and 63 points. For all intents and purposes the game was decided by the 8 minute mark of the second quarter as Coldwater led 42-0. The Falcons did score two touchdowns in the last four minutes of the game against the Coldwater reserves to make the final score 63-14.

The Cavaliers dominated every aspect of the game as Cory Klenke was 10 of 11 passing for 145 yards and 3 touchdowns. Tony Harlamert had six carries for 94 yards and 3 touchdowns and he also scored on a 51 yard pass. Ryan Geier had 3 catches for 71 yards and two scores. He also ran a punt back 84 yards for another score. The reserves were also successful as Keith Wenning as 3 of 3 passing for 72 yards and a tipped pass to Drew Bruggeman which covered 56 yards for a score. Finally Zach Kaup tossed a 44 yard pass on a half-back option for 44 yards to Geier.

The Coldwater defense which has long struggled against the run held the highly touted Falcons running game to 191 yards on the ground, 41 yards of which came in the first half. The bulk of the rushing yards came in the final quarter against the Coldwater reserves. Clinton-Massie only completed one pass for nine yards.

With the victory, Coach John Reed's Cavaliers captured their second regional championship in three seasons and moved to the final four for fourth time since 1998.

Next up for the Cavaliers will be the Williamsport Westfall Mustangs. Their Division 4 State Semi-final will be played at Clayton Northmont.

In a touching gesture prior to the game, Coldwater presented a check for $15,150 to the family of Massie cheerleader Savanna Coffman, who underwent a heart transplant Wednesday. The community of Coldwater, led by the student body, raised the funds in just 2 days!

"A great community like Coldwater pours their heart out for somebody they don't even know," said C-M athletic director Keith Mattison. "It represents what high school is genuinely all about. It tugs at your heart."

Coldwater and Kettering Alter play one for the ages; Cavs win in 3OTs

By Greg Billing, Contributor – JHuddle.com

Coldwater 59, Alter 52 (3OT)

Saturday at Piqua's Alexander Stadium, Coldwater and Kettering Alter played a game that will be replayed across the Miami Valley and Ohio for ages. Down 21-points twice to the undefeated and favored Knights, Coldwater forced overtime and won 59-52 after three extra periods.

It was a game that featured 981 yards in total offense, 15 touchdowns (six from 30 yards or longer), 43 first downs and three overtimes. And after all that, it was decided by one yard.

Kettering Alter's fourth-down pass came up one yard short of a first down, giving Coldwater a stunning — if not improbable — 59-52 victory in a Division IV, Region 16 semifinal on Saturday. The Cavaliers twice trailed by three touchdowns. They trailed by two TDs five other times. And the only time Coldwater (11-1) led was the final score.

"That's what we try to build our program on, never giving up," said Coldwater coach John Reed. "We're trying to learn lessons in life. Sometimes you're down 21-0 in life. What are you going to do about it? Are you going to bag it and give up? No, you're going to battle away."

Coldwater certainly fought back. Again. And again. And again. But it seemed like every time the Cavaliers got close, the Knights (11-1) answered with a score of their own. That lasted until the fourth quarter and eventually in the third overtime at a rocking Alexander Stadium at Piqua High School.

Behind a versatile running game that saw success straight up the middle against the Cavaliers, the Knights built a 42-21 lead with 7:08 left in the third quarter. That also left plenty of time for Coldwater's quick-strike spread offense to work. Quarterback Cory Klenke guided the Cavs to TDs on their final four drives in regulation. At defensive back, Klenke's fourth-quarter interception set up the Cavs' final TD, an 11-yard pass to Tony Harlamert that forced overtime with 5:55 remaining.

Alter did drive into Coldwater territory with under a minute to go, but punted with 39 seconds left when the drive stalled at Coldwater's 42 yard line.

In the first overtime (which starts on the opponent's 20-yard line), Coldwater threw into the endzone on three of four passes. The Cavs' fourth-down pass from the 17-yard line was on target for Ryan Geier, but an Alter defender knocked the ball away. Alter, needing just a field goal to win, was pushed back by a sack and a tackle for a loss. The Knights' own fourth-down pass from the 36 fell incomplete.

In the second overtime, Alter settled for a 34-yard field goal by Scott Vannatta after two runs and a pass netted three yards. Coldwater was ready to celebrate when Klenke's pass to Harlamert gave the Cavs first-and-goal at the one. But Alter's defense stopped a run by Harlamert, a Klenke sneak, then dropped Harlamert in the backfield. Cavs' kicker Mario de la Rosa booted a 19-yard field goal tie it at 52-52.

In the third overtime, Coldwater converted another first down. On fourth-and-7 from the 17, Klenke — under pressure and with a defender grabbing at his ankles — hit Zach Kaup for 11 yards. Two plays later Klenke threw an over-the-shoulder pass to Harlamert in the corner of the endzone for the 59-52 lead. Alter faced fourth-and-8 on the 18 after a run for two yards and a pair of incompletions. Alter QB Austin Boucher hit Nate Wolfe in the flat, but he was tackled at the 11-yard line to end it.

“There’s not a whole lot to tell them other than I was proud of the way they played football, not just tonight but all year,” said Alter coach Ed Domsitz, whose team lost to Steubenville 34-33 in the D-III title game last season. “I’m sure everybody is disappointed. (The state championship game) was a goal from the beginning of the year. It was a sad ending tonight.”

Alter pounded out 360 yards rushing and 495 yards overall. Roark led the way with 193 yards and 5 TDs on 25 carries. His TDs covered 30, 3, 30, 39 and 10 yards. Chris Borland added 111 yards on 17 carries.

Coldwater, though, slowed down Alter’s running game in the second half. The Knights, who scored on their first three possessions, had just one TD over its final four drives. And the Cavs’ offense, built to come from behind if needed, did exactly that.

Klenke completed 25-of-50 passes for 431 yards and 7 TDs to a receiving corp that consistently outleaped, outran and did what it had to get the ball. That included Kaup (10 passes for 190 yards; 3 TDs), Geier (6-97 yards; 2 TDs), Harlamert (6-82 yards; 2 TDs) and Zach Siefing (3-62).

Coldwater ran just 12 times for 55 yards as the passing game accounted for almost all of the Cavs’ 486 yards in total offense.

“Our offensive line deserves so much credit. There’s no question the guts of No. 11 (Klenke) and our fullback (Harlamert) always blocking and protecting,” Reed said. “We played with such tremendous heart tonight. That was one of the greatest games I’ve been associated with.”

Domsitz, though, won’t look back on this game in a few years and smile at the thought of playing in a game that many will consider the greatest they ever saw.

“It makes it more difficult to take. You see all the great things we did and it makes it more difficult to accept the fact we didn’t win,” he said. “I know some people will say this was the greatest game they’ve ever seen. A great game to me is a game we win, whatever the score.”

Coldwater ... warm hearts

By MARK HUBER – Wilmington News Journal

Friday, November 16, 2007

The Coldwater community, the same folks who will be bitter rivals come Saturday night, are opening their hearts to a Clinton-Massie family. According to Coldwater athletic director Eric Goodwin, the Coldwater community is raising money to give to Clinton-Massie freshman Savanna Coffman, who had a heart transplant Wednesday afternoon. Coffman is a reserve football cheerleader.

“The Coldwater community has heard about the Clinton-Massie cheerleader going through a heart transplant,” Goodwin said. “We are raising as much money as possible in the next two days to present it to Clinton-Massie. This is a great reminder as to what high school sports are truly meant to be.”

Coffman’s family was informed early Wednesday of a donor heart being available, according to CMHS principal Randy Dunlap. They agreed to take the heart and had the surgery Wednesday afternoon. Dunlap said she came out of the surgery in good shape Wednesday night. “The heart was beating,” he said.

Coldwater will meet Clinton-Massie 7 p.m. Saturday in the Region 16 championship football game at Welcome Stadium. Dunlap said the idea that a rival school would do such a thing is commendable.

“This is a wonderful thing that Coldwater is doing for Savanna and her family,” Dunlap said. “I am sure that Savanna’s family will be touched by the show of caring and support from the Coldwater community. We at Clinton-Massie appreciate all of their efforts and the efforts of everyone else in regards to this situation. “

“It is an issue that goes beyond football or competition. Through their efforts in helping to support the family and Savanna, they (Coldwater) have truly demonstrated what sportsmanship and goodwill is all about. This puts everything in perspective in terms of life and what really matters most.”

Clinton-Massie athletic director Keith Mattison said Coldwater’s gesture is nothing but class. “How cool is that?” Mattison said. “What a class act from a bunch of great people. Kind of gets you teary-eyed. For them to care enough to give money to one of our kids is big.”

EDITOR’S NOTE — An update was given on Savanna’s Web site, www.savanasmiles.com on Thursday. It said, “We have a heart! The surgery went well! Tabby says that Savana is doing OK. She came through the surgery fine. When they inserted the heart, they also put in a pace maker for a “just in case.” About 2:30 a.m., Savana woke up and was in a lot of pain and wanted her mom so Tabby went back to be with her. Her heart at that point was beating slowly so they activated the pace maker to speed up her heart beat. Her sugar level is too high from the drugs they are giving her so they had to give her insulin. Her kidneys are working so that is great and Savana is holding her own and doing OK. Keep those positive thoughts and prayers going. It is a long haul for the whole family.

C-M board recognizes Coldwater

Wilmington News Journal

Tuesday, November 20, 2007

ADAMS TOWNSHIP Clinton-Massie officials continue to be moved by the generosity of spirit conveyed by the community of Coldwater and its football powerhouse high school for giving more than $15,000 to Clinton-Massie freshman Savana Coffman.

At Monday's school board meeting, Clinton-Massie Superintendent Ron Rudduck asked board members to approve a resolution in recognition of Coldwater's caring. The Coldwater school system and community rallied to her support both spiritually and financially, said Rudduck.

Coffman was a heart transplant recipient on Nov. 14. The Clinton-Massie Board of Education and the Clinton-Massie community offer their gratitude to the entire Coldwater community for their extraordinary compassion and kindness, the resolution says. What's more, the resolution states that Saturday will be officially declared Coldwater Cavaliers Day in the Clinton-Massie district, and the entire Clinton-Massie community is encouraged to support Coldwater High School that day in its pursuit of a state football championship.

Rudduck plans to take a framed copy of the resolution to Coldwater's December school board meeting. He said he went through his son's closet and found an orange sweater for the occasion.

Coldwater beat Clinton-Massie 63-14 on Saturday in Dayton in the Division IV, Region 16 final.

In addition to the formal resolution adopted by the school board, Clinton-Massie Board of Education member Jeff Borton wrote a letter on behalf of the board to the Coldwater school board, staff, students and Cavaliers fans. The Clinton-Massie community would like to thank you for your gesture of giving at a time of year we celebrate Thanks'. It exemplifies what we should teach our children and ask of ourselves, the letter opens. Often times in our individual endeavors to be the best we can, we lose sight of what is the end game. The idea of teams, families and communities banding together to assist individuals in need, was a challenge you did not take lightly, and did not go unnoticed nor will it be forgotten.

The Clinton-Massie crowd erupted Saturday night in unified appreciation as the message of your generous gift to Savana was heard over the microphone. Hats were tipped and thank you's were shouted out from across the green turf in reaction to the announcement, Borton wrote. We would like to congratulate you on your win, wish your team the best, and thank all of those who continue to inspire each of us to be better, concludes the letter.

Clinton-Massie High School Principal Randy Dunlap said the hope is for Coffman to be home by Christmas.

Mooney & Coldwater set for another clash in Stark County

Hollywood couldn't have authored a better script. "Coldwater-Cardinal Mooney II" debuts Saturday at 3 p.m. in the Division IV state football final at Massillon's Paul Brown Tiger Stadium. The game is a rematch of the 2005 D-IV state final won by Coldwater 33-9. Since then, Mooney has won 28 straight and has a senior class whose record is 52-5. Coldwater's seniors are 52-3. Something has to give Saturday.

PEAK PERFORMANCE: Following a 35-14 Week 2 loss at home to Marion Local that snapped lengthy home and regular season win streaks, Coldwater quietly went about its business.

The Cavs finished the regular season with eight straight wins, but it wasn't until a 59-52 triple-overtime win against Kettering Alter in the regional semifinals that people started to take notice again. Most had Alter penciled as Mooney's eventual opponent.

"We're peaking at the right time," Coldwater coach John Reed said. "We've gotten better and better as the season's gone on. We didn't really know how good we were until we played Kettering Alter and they certainly put us to the ultimate test. We found out then, though, that we can play at the high level that it takes to get to a state championship game. The key is we're playing the best football we can possibly play right now."

Subtract the Alter game from the playoff equation and Coldwater has thrashed its other three postseason opponents 162-42.

CHARGE: The Cavaliers explosive offense is fueled by a slew of junior skill players and the emergence of a solid line.

"I think the thing that has happened is that the offensive line has matured," Reed said. "We didn't have any starters back on the offensive line and when the season started we didn't have the experience it takes to run the offense we run but those young men have matured and remained healthy. We've had some outstanding play from our wide receivers and our quarterback, junior Cory Klenke, has developed along with the offensive line. The maturity and development of the line and quarterback has allowed us to get to the place where we're scoring as many points as we are."

Coldwater has only scored less than 35 points once, and that came in a season-opening 21-7 victory over Kenton.

Klenke has completed 155-of-260 passing attempts for 2,394 yards and 29 TDs. He's tossed 13 interceptions. Klenke is also the team's second leading rusher, having tallied 621 yards and four TDs on 88 carries.

Ryan Geier, Coldwater's lone senior starter among the skill positions, is the Cavs main receiving threat (52 receptions, 994 yards, 11 TDs).

"They are a team that scores a whole bunch of points and racks up a whole bunch of yards rushing and passing," Cardinal Mooney coach PJ Fecko said. "It's an offense that puts up incredible displays of scoring and I don't think you can stop them. You just hope to slow them down."

UTILITY MAN: In addition to the line, receivers and Klenke, Coldwater has also gotten a boost for junior running back Tony Harlamert. Harlamert has 764 yards and 27 TDs on 124 carries and has also logged 756 receiving yards and 10 TDs on 51 receptions. Doubling as a defensive back, Harlamert has eight interceptions.

"I was so pleased to see that he was selected first team (Northwest District) as a utility back because I don't think there could be a better description of him than that," Reed said. "He serves so many purposes. He runs the ball so well, he runs great patterns, he catches the difficult ball, he plays defense and he's an outstanding return person. He's one of those special people."

SIZE DOESN'T MATTER: Coldwater's dominant line play – on both sides of the ball – is somewhat shocking considering the Cavs have no player over 232 pounds on their roster. The starting offensive line goes 186, 198, 232, 224 and 217 pounds. The defensive line is even smaller, weighing in at 199, 204, 186 and 178.

For comparison, Mooney's OL weighs 295, 294, 261, 245 and 287. Its DL is 215, 261, 185 and 266. Mooney linebacker/running back Michael Zordich weighs more (237) than any Cavalier.

"We've been undersized ever since I've been here," Reed said. "We just don't have those big kids. You drive three miles down the road and St. Henry has those guys that are 6-5, 250 and we just don't have those kids. There must be a line of demarcation somewhere in between where they're not allowed to crossover."

Quickness and cohesion are the Cavs strengths.

"Anyone who knows anything about football knows that there needs to be a great cohesiveness among one another on the OL, particularly when you throw the ball as much as we do," Reed said. "You have to have a feel for what the guy next to you is going to do and these guys have that feel. They're not going to blow anyone off the ball, but their tenacity and passion for doing what we do has served itself well."

UNDERDOG: Despite Mooney being the favorite among the masses, Reed said his team hasn't grasped the underdog role or taken kindly to it. The Cavs are immune to such talk.

"Haven't even thought about that," Reed said. "We're just pleased we're playing as well as we are and we're pleased with the opportunity to be playing for a state championship again. I don't think too much about that kind of stuff. That's more for you (media) guys to write about. We're just trying to get ready to play a game."

GETTING TO THE BALL: Coldwater's defense has been overshadowed by its offense, but that unit is noteworthy in its own right. In 14 games, the Cavs have allowed more than 14 points once (to Alter).

Junior linebacker Adam Homan (the younger brother of current Ohio State LB Ross Homan) leads the team with 113 tackles. Senior linebackers Justin Bruns and Mark Steinbrunner are second with 108 tackles each.

Senior tackle Tyler Kunk, a two-time state wrestling qualifier, spearheads the defensive front with 87 tackles, including 15 for loss. Klenke has a team-high nine interceptions.

"They play great team defense and are aggressive," Fecko said. "They bring it every single play and make big plays. They get a ton of people to the ball and haven't really giving anything up to opposing offenses. It's a daunting task for us."

SIMILAR SITUATION: Prior to the 2005 state final, Mooney lost its starting quarterback in the state semifinals and had a fresh face taking snaps against Coldwater. This postseason, the Cards lost their signal caller in the regional semifinals.

Senior Danny McCarthy, one of the state's top players and a threat to win Mr. Football, hurt his neck during the first quarter of Mooney's regional semi victory over Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary and finished the game. The Notre Dame recruit has not played the last two weeks and is likely not going to see action Saturday.

McCarthy rushed for 1,219 yards and 18 TDs on 154 carries this season and threw for an additional 434 yards and five TDs. He doubled as a star defensive back.

"Dan is obviously an outstanding player," Fecko said. "Anytime you lose an athlete and leader of his ability it's never easy to replace. It is a team sport though. There's a lot of other guys on the team."

In McCarthy's absence, senior Tim Marlowe has taken snaps. Marlowe, who has more receptions and receiving yards than pass attempts and yards, has completed 3-of-7 passes for 57 yards and a TD in his two games. He's also rushed for 206 yards and 3 TDs on 25 carries.

STRAIGHT FORWARD: It's no secret that Mooney is going to line up and pound the Cavaliers with its running game. The Cards had two backs over 1,000 yards this year and another with over 900.

"(We do) a little bit of everything," Fecko said. "We spread it around pretty good and have run it a bunch of different ways out of a bunch of different sets. Each game and each week we've taken on a new identity and it's worked well so far. You name a way you can run it and we've done it."

Senior Brandon Beachum, a Penn State recruit, leads the team with 1,569 yards and 17 TDs on 244 attempts, while Zordich, who's also headed to Happy Valley, has 973 yards and 10 TDs on 129 attempts.

SEEING RED: Defensively the Cardinals are led by Zordich and senior Taylor Hill (Oklahoma). Zordich has a team-high 109 tackles and 16 TFL. Hill has 95 tackles and 14 TFL.

Mooney allows 7.9 points per game.

"The pressure they are going to bring," Reed said when asked what concerns him with Mooney's defense. "They are going to pressure us no doubt about that. Their physical play and athleticism is going to be something we have to deal with and whether or not we can contend with that will determine if we can stay in the ballgame or not. If we can't handle their pressure we'll have a hard time."

DIFFERENT BREED: Although a D-IV school, Mooney has made waves nationally this season with an extended stay in many national polls. After watching film, Reed would vote for them too.

"The thing that jumps off the films is their athleticism on both sides of ball," Reed said. "Obviously they have great, great players and they've played against great teams throughout their schedule. They are like so many other teams playing at this point. They don't have to take their game to a different level, they've already played at the level it takes to compete for a state championship."

NOT PLAYING REVENGE CARD: Don't expect Fecko to preach publicly about the 2005 state final and paying the Cavs back for the Cards last lost. That may be a discussion during practice, but not something that the coach sees as important as Xs and Os.

"(Playing Coldwater again in the final) is a unique situation," Fecko said. "(Coldwater) was the last team that we lost to, but for preparation and different things like that, there's definitely not a revenge factor. The game of football is much more complex than that and it takes more than just revenge to beat a team like Coldwater."

ODDS ARE: When asked what the betting line of Mooney throwing more passes than Coldwater would be should Vegas post it, Fecko didn't hesitate to answer.

"I wouldn't take that bet," Fecko chuckled. "That wouldn't even be on the board."

TRADITION: Both Coldwater and Mooney have storied traditions.

The Cardinals are making their ninth appearance in the state finals and looking for their seventh title. Mooney has been in the playoffs 21 times.

Coldwater is making its fourth appearance in the state finals and has a string of 11 straight postseason appearances, which ranks third best right now in the state behind only Cleveland St. Ignatius (20 straight) and Columbus DeSales (14 straight). Newark Catholic has also been in the playoffs 11 straight years.
